

Creating Hope Through Science

Volunteer Opportunities

Event Planning – Volunteer to serve on one of our various event committees

1. Gift of Life and Breath (GL&B) 5K Run/Walk at the Anschutz Medical Center – May 15, 2010
2. Young Professionals Event – The White Dinner – August 2010
3. Women's Event – June, 2010
4. Eat! Drink! Cure! – October 16, 2010

Fundraising

1. Stewardship Committee – Assist us contacting our donors and volunteers, with personal thank you calls and updates on AMC Cancer Fund
2. Donor Appreciation Event – Help us to thank all our donors and volunteers
3. Recruit your favorite restaurant to participate in AMC's annual Eat! Drink! Cure! Event on Thursday, October 14, 2010
4. Outreach – Hold an awareness/fundraising event for AMC, i.e. cocktail party, tennis tournament. AMC will provide speakers from the UCCC research and/or medical staff, brochures, etc.

Public Relations/Media

1. Be a blogger – Share your cancer story on the AMC website, get feedback, advise and learn more about what's happening at the University of Colorado Cancer Center and AMC
2. AMC's newsletter, "Celebrate Survival"
 - assist with the graphic design and layout of the newsletter
 - proofreading
 - write an article

Administrative Support – Share a skill:

1. Data entry: Help keep our databases up to date, entering event data and more. Working knowledge of a database program helpful. Time commitment: flexible
2. General office help: Assistance with mailings, filing, copying/collating of materials and the like. Time commitment: flexible.
3. Special assignments: Lend your particular expertise to a variety of specialized initiatives:
 - a. adding enhanced features and functionality to the AMC website
 - b. proofreading
 - c. writing articles for the AMC newsletter
 - d. assisting with tribute designs and improvement
 - e. help to plan and execute activities in relation to the various fundraising events
 - f. research our outreach to other non-profit and individual bloggers

Have an interest or expertise that you don't see here?

Let us know what YOU like to do!

Volunteering with AMC is a great way to learn more about non-profits while helping a great cause!

Volunteers must provide contact information and references.

Our regular office hours are 9AM – 5PM, but in some cases, work could be done at home or via email.

For more information or to volunteer contact Frieda Sands at sandsf@amc.org

a world without cancer